JUDGMENT

Aggrieved by the order dated 5.4.2007 passed by the
Id. DCDRF-II, Moradabad in Complaint Case No.32 of 2007, the revisionists Pachimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam
Ltd. and another have filed the instant revision on 17.5.2007 under Section 17(b) of the Consumer Protection
Act, 1986 on the ground that the impugned order dated 5.4.2007 is against the provisions of law and therefore requires to be set aside.

During the course of hearing on the point of admission of the revision, the Ld. counsel for the revisionists admitted that the impugned order dated 5.4.2007 is purely interlocutory in nature and, therefore, no appeal or revision ^{lies} against the same. The Forum below has not passed any adverse order against the revisionists. We have gone through the impugned order dated 5.4.2007. It is purely interlocutory in nature and there is no illegality and irregularity in the same and, therefore, there is no scope for interfering in the same. Without prejudice to anyone, the revisionist is at liberty to place the relevant law before the Forum below for just disposal of the complaint case.

With this observation, the revision is dismissed at the admission stage.
